- ✗ The cyber attack was caused by an illegal activity you undertook.

Home emergency cover

- ✗ Any replacement roof tiles (unless this is the only way to contain the emergency).
- ✗ Removal of rats, mice and grey squirrels from outside the main building of your property including outbuildings.
- ✗ Damage to outbuilding windows, outbuilding doors and outbuilding locks.
- ✗ Any dripping tap/nozzle or any other part of the plumbing or drainage system where the water is safely escaping down a drain.

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! Certain limitations may apply to your policy. For example:
 - the excess (the amount you have to pay on any claim);
 - monetary limits for certain items or types of cover;
 - endorsements may apply to your policy. These will be shown in your policy documents.

Legal Expenses

- ! There is a 90 day qualifying period for claims for Employment Disputes and Tenancy Disputes, and a 180 day qualifying period for claims for Property Infringement. We will not cover any incidents arising within this time. Where the amount in dispute is below £100 plus VAT.
- ! If you withdraw from the legal action without our consent, you're responsible for any advisers' costs.

Home Emergency

- ! If you are found to have known about a loss or damage arising from an emergency before the start date of this policy, the insurer will withdraw cover.
- ! If in the opinion of the contractor, they are unable to repair your boiler/hot water system, you may receive £250 towards buying a replacement. This must be claimed on a reimbursement basis within 90 days of the contractor's attendance at your home. If you decide not to replace your boiler on the advice of the contractor, cover will no longer apply.

What are my obligations?

- At the beginning of the period of insurance or when making changes to your policy, you must give complete and accurate answers to any questions you are asked relating to the insurance.
- You must tell your broker of you becoming aware of any inaccuracies or changes in the information you have provided to us, whether happening before or during the period of insurance.
- You must tell your broker if your circumstances change either before your policy starts or during the period of insurance. For example, if you move house, start a business from home, you change the use or you rent it out, you increase the value of your contents or rebuild of the buildings from what is shown on your schedule or if you leave your home unoccupied for more than 60 consecutive days or unfurnished.
- You must tell your broker before you start any conversions, extensions or other structural work to the buildings with an estimated cost of more than £75,000. You must take all reasonable steps to prevent loss, damage or an accident and keep the buildings in a good state of repair. You must tell us about any event which might lead to a claim as soon as possible. When we are notified of a change or of any planned structural work we will tell you if this affects your policy. For example, we may amend the terms of your policy or require you to pay an additional premium. In certain circumstances we may cancel your policy in accordance with the "Cancelling This Insurance" section of the policy document.
- Failure to meet your obligations could result in a claim being rejected, a reduction in the amount we pay or the cancellation of your policy.

Legal Expenses

- You must gain our consent before incurring any legal advisers' costs or any other costs and expenses

Home Emergency

- If you employ your own contractor, you must provide a fully itemised invoice or receipt from your contractors to support your claim for reimbursement.

When and how do I pay?

Your broker will advise you of the full details of when and the options by which you can pay.

When does the cover start and end?

This insurance cover is for a 12 month period and the start date and end date of the cover are specified in your policy schedule.

How do I cancel the policy?

You can cancel this insurance at any time by contacting your broker. After the 14 day cooling off period, provided you have not made a claim, you will be entitled to a refund of any premium paid, subject to a deduction for any time for which you have been covered and the administrative cost of providing the insurance.
